

SPIRITUALITY IN THE PUB

An initiative of Catalyst for Renewal

IT'S TIME: "THE RISING LAITY"*

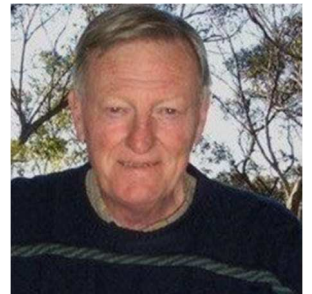

RoseMarie Prosser & David Timbs

Wednesday, 22 February, 2017 at 7.30pm

After a number of years in secondary schools and in the Catholic Education Office, Rose Marie has been lecturing in Practical Theology at YTU, a college of the University of Divinity, Melbourne. She has a BTheol and an MTheol, and a PhD in chemistry. RoseMarie and her late husband Bob were Australian regional couple for Teams – a movement for married spirituality. She provides professional development for staff in Catholic schools and parishes.

As a lecturer at Yarra Theological Union and Catholic Theological College, David lectured mainly in Pauline Correspondence, Exegetical methods and Biblical History. For fifteen years he taught Texts and traditions, Religion and Society, English and Australian History in Catholic Secondary Schools. Now retired, David has worked with Edmund Rice Refugee Service, teaching English language literacy whilst mentoring children in reading skills at a Catholic Primary School in Melbourne's West. David also writes extensively in the areas of Church, Theology and Scripture and for the past seven years has been an active member of Melbourne-based Catholics for Renewal.
